

THE CLIMAX.

WEDNESDAY, - - SEPT. 18, 1895.

—Farm for sale or exchange. See local.

—The tent meeting is drawing large crowds.

—Marion county has an epidemic of typhoid fever.

—R. H. Luxon's sale of live stock, today. See local.

—Mrs. Silas Cobb will build a residence on her farm at Calcutt.

—See our fifteen portraits of distinguished generals on 4th page.

—Miss Annette Van Meter, well known here, is soon to be married.

—Several good communications came to-day yesterday to appear to-day.

—Waller Bennett rented the Clay farm, 278 acres, near town, for $1,000.

—The Cotton States and International Exposition, at Atlanta, Ga., opens today.

—For pretty girls and fat horses, we'll put Posey Ridge against any ridge in the county.

—Henderson Wheeler is building a large tobacco barn on the pike near Calcutt.

—Morris, the clothes cleaner and dyer, has gone to Knoxville, but will return in ten days.

—Richard Cobb, Jr., of Danville, wishes to sell a valuable farm near Richmond. See ad.

—Go to Dr. P. Armer's and get one of those sterling silver mounted Congo walking canes.

—The butcher firm of M. M. Hamilton & Co. has dissolved. C. T. Wells remaining as sole proprietor.

—Don't fail to read Maj. Henry T. Stanton's and Miss Elvira Miller's poems in today's CLIMAX.

—One mile of the Speedwell, Kingston and Menasha pike has been received by the county court.

—Miss Florence Hood's wagonette filled with kindergarten pupils, like so many young white doves, is a pretty sight.

—The finest red corn, the finest beans and the finest pumpkins on earth have been left at The CLIMAX office by John H. Estill, Esq.

—Mr. Grant Miller, manager of Henry Klein & Son's new store, has gone East to purchase a full line of clocks and watches for the fall season.

—Wm. B. Benton, of Estill county, nominated by Democrats for Legislature, is a cousin of Sen. and E. P. Benton, this county, and is a good man.

—Harvest festival at the Episcopal church, Sunday, September 23rd, at which time the house will be decorated with farm and garden products.

—No vacant business houses in Richmond, and all the vacant residences could be handled off in a week, except the big Chennault residence.

—Mr. E. R. Carr and wife have returned from the East. They saw the New York and Buffalo express train pass that made 40 miles in 45 minutes, or 64 miles per hour.

—The CLIMAX office has been flooded with job work, the past three months, and there is more than one hundred dollars worth on the books that has not been touched.

—A locomotive on the R. N. & A. R. has been laid up here for repairs, the last three weeks, and having received two hundred new pieces, went on the road again this morning.

—W. R. Letcher and family will move to Richmond, to reside in a new house and family will occupy the Letcher house and B. J. Clay will move to the Clay home.

—In a freight wreck in Garrard, last Wednesday, several cars were derailed. John Barker, brakeman, ran on top jumping from car to car, just as they were turning over, thus saving his neck.

—Dr. C. Edwin Poyntz read an interesting paper before the Practitioners Club, yesterday afternoon, and presented the cases in person on loose scrofula. The paper was complimented by the older practitioners.

—War Song Chorus.

—Latter part of October, the ladies of the Christian church in Richmond will give a concert for the benefit of organ fund. Full chorus. War songs a specialty.

—Barned Again.

—Brooktown schoolhouse was again burned on Wednesday night. Most of the furniture saved. $200 insurance. Work of an incendiary, and public opinion in the vicinity is all one way as to who he is.

—Tent Meeting.

—Evangelist Combs erected his spacious tent in the Dillingham addition, Wednesday afternoon. It is in the open square formed by Main, Big Hill and Race streets. The attendance day and night is large, as many as eight hundred at some of the night meetings. Good music.

—Cobb-Patterson.

—Mr. D. W. Cobb, of Calcutt, Madison county, and Miss Jane Patterson, of Lynchburg, were quietly married, last week. The bride is the handsome young lady, who has often visited Miss Mollie Fife, this place. The groom is well known as a farmer, stock trader and heavy stable man but of late has been travelling in the South.

—Installed.

—Installation services of Rev. Joseph K. Smith took place at the First Presbyterian church, Monday night. A large and interested congregation was present to welcome their new minister to his work. The bride is the handsome young lady, who has often visited Miss Mollie Fife, this place. The groom is well known as a farmer, stock trader and heavy stable man but of late has been travelling in the South.

—Valuable Farm Information.

—Jonathan Estill says broomseed makes excellent hay. Cut it now, while green, with plenty of salt. Cattle will eat it in preference to other hay or straw horses like it.

—Regewoods, cut while green, ricked and salted, also make good hay.

—Stone cut broken up into lumps the size of marbles, and salted, will be devoured by hogs, and is the surest preventive on earth for cholera.

—Four leaves thrown into dog houses in quantity drive out the fleas. The dogs don't scratch themselves, consequently won't have mange.

Bennett for the Senate.

The Republican Senatorial Convention at Irvine, yesterday, unanimously nominated Hon. John Bennett of Richmond. He accepted.

Killed by the Cars.

John H. Shumate, a brakeman on the L. & N., was killed by the cars near Lebanon Junction, Sunday. He lived in Richmond several years, while fireman on the R. N. & A. R. Leaves a wife and one child.

At Beaver Pond.

The co-operation meeting of the Christian churches for Madison, Jackson and Estill counties, will be held at Beaver Pond, Estill county, Friday and Saturday. The best road to go is by way of Speedwell and Combs post office.

Hay Shipments.

Perkins, the hay press man, has shipped a car load of hay to Tennessee at $16 a ton. He says it is the first time he ever shipped hay in September. He has inquiries from the Hocking Valley near Xenia, Ohio. Also from Knoxville for the same amount. His quoted prices will probably get the orders.

Viewed the Battle Ground.

Mr. J. H. Shaffer, of Lexington, Ind., a soldier of the late war and member of the 53 Indiana Regiment, who was in the Richmond battle, was here last week visiting the old battle ground. He was captured by Kirby Smith, two miles west of town, and held a prisoner three days without much to eat. He was finally paroled in the court-house yard, in the county.

Had the Government Stamp Tin.

An interesting sight on the streets of Louisville at the meeting of the G. A. R. was a man on Market street who had tens of thousands of Confederate money spread out on a big store box. He was selling it for the late war. Later in the day we passed the same stand, the money was still there and the money changer was sound asleep with all that vast departed wealth for a pillow.

Responding.

Miss Stella Phillips, Berlin, Germany; Dr. Giles Harris, Missouri; Miss Sallie Ellis, Danville; E. Conroy, Irvine; D. G. Berry, Kansas; Elvira Dillingham, Miss Gritz, are CLIMAX subscribers who responded last week, from points outside of Madison county. This is about the best weekly rate. There are many people who know a good thing when they see it.

Pygmalion and Galatea.

The best student performance ever seen in Richmond was the recitation at White-Bush opera house, Monday night, by Irvine local talent, of the above play. There was nothing austere about it. They knew their parts thoroughly and acted them faithfully. The coaching by Mrs. Harry W. Sheehor, of Boston, was perfect. The unusual beauty of the young ladies was unanimously conceded by the audience. The costuming could not have been excelled. Miss Annie Wagers, Miss Mabel Bergman, Miss Ida Park, Miss Maud Embury were the ladies. Dr. Gardner, E. C. and J. W. Park, C. W. Sales and R. M. Benjamin the gentlemen. The house was filled—the front seats were packed, the back part with school of emcees. The troupe richly deserved a larger audience.

Richmond Building and Loan Corporation.

This substantial concern has had printed an abundance of literature for gratifying distribution, especially a booklet setting forth the advantages of the company. J. Reid Cornelison has been appointed soliciting agent. He is an experienced R. & L. man, and will take pleasure in explaining the merits of the company to you. He knows all about the plan, capital stock, membership, installment stock, paid up stock, with draws, borrowers, loans, transfers, reductions, etc.

A glance at the officers is all the guarantee you want:

J. Stone Walker, President.
H. J. Strong, Vice-President.
H. E. Turley, Secretary.
Class: C. Powell, Treasurer.

The Republicans nominate.

The Republicans of Madison county met at the court house, Saturday, September 14th, 1895, as per adjournment, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for the legislature. The chairman of the adjourned meeting being absent the convention was called to order by County Chairman Wallace, and Dr. A. H. Stewart made chairman of the meeting.

The following were selected as a committee to canvass the situation thoroughly, select a candidate, and report same to the convention: U. S. Coyle, J. C. Armstrong, C. C. Wallace, Frank Chennault, Sam Carpenter, N. B. Howard, M. T. Bybee, C. C. Norris, C. F. Park, C. H. Horton, H. B. Hogg, W. C. Talbot, C. G. Webster, Dr. Phil Barker, Col. J. W. Caperton, J. Speed Smith, Harrison Miller, and Robert Kennedy.

The committee after remaining in session a short while unanimously selected E. T. Burnam as the Republican candidate for the legislature, and through their spokesman, E. G. Parrish, presented his name to the convention in a happy and pleasing manner. Mr. Burnam was immediately endorsed by the convention, and after being notified by a committee of his nomination, responded in an impressive and enthusiastic speech of acceptance.

The convention was also entertained with speeches by Peyton F. Adams, Dr. Stewart, and H. B. Hogg. There being no other business the convention adjourned sine die.

A. H. Stewart, Chairman.

Milo Shanks, Secretary.

As of Sept. 15th.

Assessor Brodus and deputies Tom Berry, John T. Embury and John D. Simmons started on their rounds, Monday. Brodus began in Richmond, Berry in Foxtown, Embury in Elliston and Simmons in Kirkville districts.

The law requires owners to list their property "as of Sept. 15th." That is, the property owned by a person on the 15th day of September must be listed by him, no matter if he sells the property before the Assessor reaches him.

It would be beneficial to all parties if property owners would study the matter over, before the Assessor comes, so questions could be readily answered—and not only that, but they would be worth.

The Modern Beauty.

Thrives on good food and sunshine, with plenty of exercise in the open air. Her form glows with health and her face blooms with its beauty. If her system needs the cleansing action of a laxative remedy, she uses the gentle and pleasant liquid laxative Syrup of figs.

The Country is wild over it. What?

The Blue Grass still hat. Wallace & Rice.

Sold Again.

The Jarman residence on lower Main street was resold, last week. Bought by J. B. Stouffer for $2,050.

Dirty Break.

On Thursday, dirt was broke for the foundation of the new K. C. Depot. It sits a little back of the old one and another track will be laid to be used as the main line. Harris & Allman, brick work; Douglas & Turpin, wood work.

Life Insurance Paid.

B. C. Potts, agent New York Life, has paid policies, the past week: B. C. Neal, Estill county, $2,500. Mrs. Jonah Wagers, Estill county, $2,000, face value, and all payments refunded. J. P. Embury, $5,000.

Infirmity.

Seven patients for August—4 county, 2 ward and 1 city. Two colored in separate colored ward.

Donations of Flour, meal, fruit, vegetables, milk, for which thanks are extended.

Physicians in charge for month, Foster, Poyntz, Frazee.

Moran Renting.

Agent W. R. Shackelford rented, Saturday, the H. A. Moran land at Silver Creek.

Home place, 657 1/2 acres, Robt. Duerson, $3.

Grass, 108 acres, T. S. Burnam, $2.80.

Grass, 165 acres, John Ballard, $2.80.

Mill, Henry Hamber, $226.50.

45 acres, Wm. Frather, $4.10.

Grass, 273 acres, taken down.

Zack Bush, auctioneer.

Total rents about $3,000.

Circuit Court.

Grand jury adjourned on Monday, having found only 22 indictments, none of importance.

Has Cosby and Ed. Munday, colored, ten years in penitentiary for rape.

A. C. Quick 1 year for obtaining money under false pretenses—pretended to be authorized collector.

Case of Collins vs. Park, $8,000, growing out of Irvine real estate, argued yesterday.

G. A. R. Notes.

Louisville is proud of her unparalleled success in entertaining the G. A. R.

The visitors were variously estimated at 200,000 to 400,000. The actual number was probably 200,000.

There were fewer accidents and casualties than ever known in such a crowd. The unaccountable explosion of a caisson of the Louisville Legion artillery, killing four artillerymen and the colored driver, was the only accident of importance.

Fewer delays than ever known.

Fewer arrests by the police than usual on such occasions.

In all the speeches made there was not an unfortunate remark.

No complaint of extortionate rates from any source.

The Louisville newspapers published every thing of the least importance, and the wonder is how they did it so accurately.

Fifty thousand old soldiers joined in the parade on Wednesday.

Mr. Watterson delivered his lecture on Abraham Lincoln at Macanley's Theater, and the house was crowded to hear him.

Gen. Ivan N. Walker, of Indiana, succeeded Gen. Lawler as Commander-in-Chief of the G. A. R. Gen. E. H. Hobson, of Kentucky, Vice Commander-in-Chief.

St. Paul, Minnesota, was selected as the place of meeting, next year.

The Louisville Water Works Co. reports nine million gallons more water than the average used during the week.

A special train of fifteen cars of beer came through Richmond from Cincinnati for Louisville on Wednesday.

At Wilder Park, 7,500 gallons of beer and 25,000 loaves of bread greeted the multitude. Col. Will S. Hays entertained the boys in blue with a colored chorus of 200 voices, such pieces as "Hannah Aint You Dead Yet Come" predominating. Jim Watts, of Richmond, knocked out another colored pugilist in a stage performance.

The pyrotechnics fell short of expectation, and was the only thing that did.

Ex-Confederates harmonized beautifully with their former foes.

Four thousand invitations were issued to the ball at the auditorium.

A couple of enterprising fellows bought two thousand pies, expecting to find the G. A. R.'s foreordained pie eaters, but they had 3,700 left over, and there being an ordinance against throwing stuff away within the limits, the pies were loaded on a raft and turned loose in the Ohio.

One man rented two vacant houses and filled them with rats, but he got only four lodgers.

Outsiders all over the country took advantage of the low rates to visit their old homes in Kentucky. Madison county former residents, to the number of six or eight, dropped in unexpectedly by this means.

Gen. M. D. Manson, of Indiana, who fought against Kirby Smith at Richmond, was among the visitors.

One gambling house quit $8,000 winner in one night.

The G. A. R. spent, at the lowest estimate, $1,500,000 in Louisville. Some place it at $3,000,000 to $4,000,000.

Gen. Lucius Fairchild, of Wisconsin, Ex-Consul to Liverpool, Gen. Lew Wallace, author of Ben Hur, and Ex-Minister to Turkey; Gen. C. M. Clay, Ex-Minister to Russia, were among the distinguished visitors.

One of the most delightful social features in connection with the visit of the G. A. R. was the informal reception given by Col. Bennett H. Young at his home on Fourth avenue in honor of the famous Columbia Post, of Chicago.

Columbia Post a year ago acted as an escort of honor to the Kentucky ex-Confederates in that city. The organization is one of the wealthiest in the United States. The members are among the best-known men in Chicago. The membership is limited to 150, and eighty-five of the members were in Louisville.

—The French and German classes at Madison Institute are open to persons not otherwise connected with the school. Should a sufficient number apply separate classes will be formed of those not regular students.

Impure blood is the cause of boils, pimples and other eruptions. Hood's Sarsaparilla purifies the blood, and cures these troubles.

The World's Fair Tests

Dangerously Sick.

A telegram from Jackson, Breathitt county, last night, announced the extreme illness of Dick McKee. It requested his father, O. W. McKee, to come and bring a priest.

PERSONAL.

Miss Lucy Brown, of Frankfort, is visiting Miss Lucy Crow.

Mr. Quincy Ward, of Paris, is visiting his friend, Mr. Harvey Chennault.

Miss Bessie Spears has returned to school at Madison Female Institute.

Mr. Eugene Walker, attorney at law, New York, is visiting relatives here.

Mrs. R. W. Sturdevant, of Springfield, Ohio, is visiting relatives in the county.

Mr. Chas. E. Smoot, of Minerva, Ky., visited his cousin, Dr. Holton, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Snyder and daughter, of Decatur, Ill., are visiting Capt. Ballard.

Mrs. I. F. Hubbard, of Columbia, Mo., is visiting the family of Mr. D. M. Bright.

Mrs. John P. Jarman, of Trenton, Mo., is visiting her father, Capt. P. P. Ballard, on Third street.

Mr. Harry Schlegel, after a pleasant visit to relatives and friends in Mt. Sterling, has returned home.

Miss Etta Pearl Gentry left, Monday, for a visit to the family of her grandfather, Mr. Thos. Gentry, in Estill.

Mrs. E. M. Harber and Miss Chanklin, of Trenton, Mo., are visiting the families of Mr. M. M. Harber.

Mrs. W. T. Tevis and children left, last week, for a protracted visit to relatives and friends in Southwestern Kentucky.

Mrs. Kate M. Gentry and Mrs. E. A. Byrum have returned from Louisville having visited Mr. Raymond Byrum, formerly of this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Gentry and Mrs. Theodore Wilson, of Estill, have returned home after several days visit to the family of R. L. Gentry, on Second street.

Mrs. Julia C. Dunn, of Wichita, Kans., spent a few days with Miss Mary Patten, en route to Fredericksburg Va., where she has a fine position as Directress of the vocal department in the Presbyterian school.

Mr. T. J. Noble, of Illinois, is visiting his brother, Mr. Paul Noble, on 5th street. He reports excellent crops, a revival of business, a decline of free silver sentiment, and prophesies a Democratic victory.

Mrs. A. Wilkes Smith will be the guest of Dr. and Mrs. W. O. Roberts during the week of the encampment. Dr. Smith will be with Mr. and Mrs. James Miller, and will be accompanied by an old friend from Ohio—Louisville Times.

The home of Miss Ann Bennett was the scene of a very pretty entertainment Saturday night. It was given in honor of Miss Sara Scott, of Lexington, the charming guest of Miss Helen Bennett. Progressive cuisine and dancing were the order of the evening.

Mrs. Otto Stoelker and daughter, of Montgomery, Ala., are visiting Mrs. J. M. Poyntz. Mrs. Stoelker was in days of long ago the schoolmate of Mrs. Poyntz.

They met a year ago by accident in Montgomery, and renewed the old friendship and are now happy in talking over the old days when they were at Nazareth, near Bardonia, Ky., as school girls.

Miss Mary Mathews, accompanied by her nephew, Mr. George Cornelison, of Hotel Glyndon, has returned from Virginia Beach, Norfolk, Old Point Comfort, Richmond, Lexington Natural Bridge, and other points in Virginia. Mr. Cornelison says a new hotel to cost $800,000 is nearly completed at Old Point. The finishing of which will cost $300,000. He didn't find any hotel that feels better than the Glyndon.

Among those who took advantage of the low G. A. R. rate to visit their former homes in Madison are C. C. Benton, Springfield, Mo., Adam Snyder, wife and daughter, Mo., Macon, Ill., Lehigh, Roberts, Carlston, Mo., Lycourge, Broad-bas, Norborne, Mo., John and Edwin Boen, Missouri; Wm. Schaffer, Decatur, Ill., O. Brookshire, Ill. and John H. Wells, T. J. Noble, Illinois, Ernest Jarman, Colorado, Dudley Berry, T. F. Moore, Kansas; Green B. Parks, Mo., Mrs. John H. Jarman, Ills., Mr. Gentry and son, Mo., Mr. Stagner, Mo.

There was quite a pretty party entertained at the home of Mr. C. D. Chennault, Friday night. There were beautiful solos by Mrs. Sam Bennett, of Lexington, and our own "Song Bird," Miss Patten, and one by Mr. Flora, late of the Colonels. An instrumental solo by the artist of music, Miss Melton.

At the end of the musical program, the young people indulged in dancing. The proceeds of the entertainment are for the benefit of the Kentucky exhibit at the Atlanta Exposition.

Mrs. A. J. Trillballe gave an old fashioned dining at her country home, Thursday, in honor of her sister, Mrs. Sallie Ann Grimes, of Kansas City, Mo. Those who enjoyed Mrs. Trillballe's hospitality were Mrs. Green Turley, Mrs. George Baller, Mrs. Margaret Watts and daughter, Miss Fan E., Mrs. R. F. Deatherage and daughter, Miss Lila V., Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Clay and Col. D. W. Trillballe. Mrs. Grimes is the elder daughter of Mr. George Baller, deceased, and in her young days was considered one of the smartest women of Kentucky.

City Democratic Primary Election.

It is ordered by the committee that a Primary Election be held in the several wards in the city of Richmond on Monday, September 20th, 1895, between the hours of 7 o'clock a. m. and 4 o'clock p. m., the said primary to be conducted according to the law governing primaries.

The following officers are hereby appointed to hold said election:

It is ordered that all candidates hand their names, each accompanied by $10 to defray expenses on or before Saturday, Sept. 14th, 1895, at 12 o'clock, to Charles Hunter, Treasurer of the city committee.

J. E. Williams, Chairman.

H. B. Crooke, Secretary.

What is the most popular hat of the day? The Blue Grass Hat. At Wallace & Rice.

Not a few who read what Mr. Robert Rowley, of Hollands, Va., has to say below will remember their own experience under like circumstances: "Last winter I had a gripe which left me in a low state of health. I tried numerous remedies, none of which did me any good, until I was induced to try a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The first bottle did so far relieve me that I was enabled to attend to my work, and the second bottle effected a cure." For sale at 25 and 50 cents per bottle by Hagan's Pharmacy.

It is Known

By Its Cures

It is not what we say, but what Hood's Sarsaparilla does, that tells the story of its merit.

The thousands of people whom it has raised from disease and despair to happiness and health, are the strongest and best advertisements Hood's Sarsaparilla has. No other preparation in existence has such a record of wonderful cures.

This is why Hood's Sarsaparilla has the largest sale, and requires for its production the largest laboratory in the world.

Now if you need a good medicine, why not try that which has done others so much good. Remember
